

REMARKS SECTION
SUBSTITUTUE OR REWRITTEN SPECIFICATION

DATE: December 9, 2003

RE: Specification 608.01(q): statement declaring that the Rewritten Specification contains "No New Matter".

Specification 608.02(p): statement declaring that the Drawing Specification contains "No New Matter".

Commissioner for Patents:

This most recent submission of the invention for the patent application (09/940,081) was rewritten without any new matter in order to comply with proper Idiomatic English language, Patent Documentation Specifications, and Formats.

Only proper detailed documentation information and formats regarding narrative content was added to the original concept, design, and specification for the invention. No new matter was added to the invention regarding Design, Specifications, Form Function, or Features. The Design Drawings also remained the same in this regard.
